

CLASSIC DAYS 2011

Under the sign of passion and pleasure...

It was under a wonderful sun that took place on the 4th edition of the Classic Days on the circuit of Magny-Cours, on April 30th and May 1st.

We can say that the 2011 edition was not the slightest : some 1139 cars were registered with not less than 107 represented brands, the motivation of the participants does not weaken!

More than 20 000 persons were present on the site this weekend.

In a universe still so eclectic, you were able to observe during a walk in the various "PARK" and in the boxes, models of all kinds : from the Bugatti Type 35 to the Matra F1 MS 11 by way of the Fiat 500 or the R8 Gordini, there were cars to suit every taste. You could also stroll along the path of the trade village, where a lot of exhibitors welcomed you on their stand.

On the Grand Prix track, 381 vehicles chained the sessions of driving all the weekend and 144 cars were at the start of the Classic Tour BRM Chronographes (tourist rally in the Nièvre). The icing on the cake, 504 automobiles have participated in the big Parade: a successful challenge !

Classic Days 2011, it was also a very well celebrated birthday for the circuit of Magny-Cours which blew its 50 candles. More than a hundred of guests, famous drivers and political personalities were here for the occasion. Jacques Laffite, Tico Martini, Henri Pescarolo, Jean Pierre Jaussaud or Alain Serpaggi gave a session of dedications before participating in a lunch placed under the sign of reunion and emotion.

Definitively, it was the notion of pleasure which have the best characterized this edition of the Classic Days. Now, roll on 2012 which, without any doubt, will give you a richer and a stronger program...
